

77% of people in Ireland agree that ODA can help bring about positive change for those living in developing countries

29% believe ODA spending should be increased

42% believe it should stay the same

Most important issues facing Ireland today are seen as:

- Health services 48% (up 6%)
- House prices 44% (down 2%)
- Household bills 42% (down 13%)

The top three issues of personal concern are:

- War, conflict, terrorism 51%
- Economic crises, job security, wages 43%
- Climate change, the environment, biodiversity, pollution 39%

Greatest influence on views and opinion of key issues (most influential):

- My family/family members 21%
- TV news (either traditional or online TV) 20%
- Social Media (Facebook, X, Instagram etc) 15%

Sources for news and information:

- TV news (either traditional or online TV) 63%
- Newspapers/press (either traditional print or online) 49%
- Radio (either traditional or online radio) 44%

The Worldview survey fieldwork was conducted by Ipsos Behaviour and Attitudes from the 17th October to 13th November, 2023. Survey results are based on a sample of 2,515 adults aged 18+, quota controlled in terms of age, gender, socio-economic class and region to reflect the profile of the adult population of Ireland. For more information visit: www.dochas.ie/resources/worldview/

Dóchas gratefully acknowledges the support of:

Irish Aid
An Roinn Gnóthaí Eachtracha
Department of Foreign Affairs